TUESDAY 19/4/22

Multi-cultural cooking day at OSHC

We are cooking up a storm today in OSHC with a range of dishes for you to try from different countries from around the world. You can bring a favourite recipe from your family heritage or come along for the day and cook up a feast for lunch.

Outcome 4: Children are confident and involved learners

WEDNESDAY 20/4/22

Gorge Wildlife Park

Come along for a fun filled day at OSHC as we head to the Gorge wildlife park. We will see many different animals, feed the monkeys, hold the koala's and have a picnic for lunch.

*Cost $15 per child

Outcome 2: Children are connected with and contribute to their world

THURSDAY 21/4/22

Wheels Day and Wilfred Taylor Reserve

Join us as we head to our local playground at Wilfred Taylor reserve for some playground fun. We will have wheels' time back at OSHC and a yummy sausage sizzle for lunch.

Outcome 5: Children are effective communicators

FRIDAY 22/4/22

AFL MAX

Join with us as we head to AFL MAX to learn some new skills and put those skills into action during a fun filled session with your friends at OSHC. Could you be the next AFL player we see? Private charter will be taking us to and from AFL MAX.

*Cost $15 per child

Outcome 3: Children have a strong sense of wellbeing
